

CITY KIDS WILDERNESS PROJECT

POSITION: City Kids Lead Program Staff, Jackson, WY

Supervisor: Camp Director

Position: Full Time Summer; Residential

Date of Employment: June 1 – August 20, 2018

Position Description:

The Lead Program Staff works with a small team of co-workers to provide a summer adventure-based program for youth. Our mission is to inspire confidence and leadership in children and teens from Washington, D.C. We provide a multi-year experiential curriculum focusing on outdoor adventure, backcountry trips and personal growth during three 16-19 day summer sessions. Base camp is our beautiful property, Broken Arrow Ranch, in Hoback Junction just south of Jackson Hole.

The Lead Program Staff includes the primary responsibilities of a program staff, as well as additional responsibilities for trip coordination, decision making and management of a team of 3 Program Staff. Responsibilities are outlined below.

The responsibilities of Program Staff are multi-faceted and include all of the following;

Mentoring- Develop a positive, proactive relationship with participants, be a role model, facilitate team and personal growth. Encourage positive behavior, set goals, and create a safe environment for participants. Lead Staff members serve as a support for campers who need individual support.

Activity and Trip Leader- Responsible for planning and leading activities, journaling, camp lessons, sports, day trips, and multi-day backcountry trips with a team of co-leaders. Daily activities include team-building games, skills-building lessons, team sports, debriefs and group facilitation. Day trips include off-site day adventures, education and service trips. Multi-day backcountry trips range from 3-10 days including backpacking, canoeing, and kayaking.

JET supervisor- Primary supervisor for 1-2 counselors-in-training throughout the course of the session. Provide daily feedback, correction, encouragement, support, and formal evaluations during job training program.

Cabin Counselors- Lead Staff will be responsible for providing substitute supervision for counselors who have a night or day off in their cabin. This include sleeping in camper cabin as many as 4 nights per session.

Management – Facilitate positive group dynamics for staff and campers. Provide support and feedback for team of program staff on a regular basis, resolve conflict, and address immediate performance issues. Effectively communicate with Camp Directors about group or staff issues. Lead Staff support Program Staff in managing challenging students or challenging group dynamics.

Decision-making & Risk Management – Serve as the lead instructor on wilderness and day trips, responsible for facilitating decision making in emergency situations and final decision of group. Responsible for communication with main office during emergencies, student updates, and trip agenda changes.

Trip Leading – Responsible for organizing trip planning and packing for all day and backcountry trips. Responsible for delegating and assign roles and responsibilities for program staff and JETs as necessary. Responsible for overall implementation of trip.

Staff work as a team directly with the Camp Director and Program Directors to implement the program. This is a residential position and thereby is not limited to these stated responsibilities. Everyone at camp shares responsibility for day-to- day tasks, which are an integral part of living in a small close-knit community. Counselors have partial days and a full day off during and between sessions. Contract includes paid 10-day staff training. Please refer to <http://citykidsdc.org/> for an understanding of our program and the children we serve.

Position Qualifications:

- Experience working with children in outdoor, camp or other residential settings, trip leading.
